A. Background and Introduction:

This document contains information on the FCAN's recognition awards, the rules and eligibility requirements, the categories, category description, the contents of the nomination submission, the judging criteria/processes, scoring mechanism and the timing of the award ceremony.

This guideline was developed by the very talented and knowledgeable senior members of the association and served as the main product of the 2022 FCAN project entitled "Seniors Step-up to the Challenge," activity – "Recognition Methodology Development and Recognition." The latter is focused at promoting volunteerism and on getting the association members to continue to develop relationships among themselves and others through participation in brainstorming at the different stages of the planning and design of the recognition methodology development. Furthermore, by having the opportunity to nominate their FCAN peers and colleagues and/or providing mentorship to others through coaching during the nomination submission period, fulfills the project's membership engagement and the isolation mitigation strategies.

The recognition award, appropriately named as "FCAN Maharlika Award" will recognize and celebrate the community contributions, personal and professional achievements of the deserving members and/or their immediate family members. Barring funding challenges, the recognition awards are intended to occur once every two years starting in the year 2022.

At this point, the association's 2022-2023 executive board and the entire project team would like to acknowledge the following volunteer planners and designers who made the production and the content of this document possible. As a group, they are called the Recognition Award Development Team. They are Dante Daquioag, Elise Daquioag, Arturo Edralin, Fe Edralin, Rene Ongcangco, Thelma Ongcangco, Eddie Pangga, Tessie Pangga, Arlene Alerta, Luz Makimkim and Carlos Fajardo (PL).

B. Rules and Eligibility:

Who can be the nominee(s)

1. The nominees must be either:
 - (a) A listed FCAN member
 - (b) An immediate family of the listed FCAN regular members' regardless of the immediate family's residency
2. The FCAN award is currently intended for individuals only
3. Nominees must consent to the use of photos and biographical material to be used for newsletter, including appropriate social media, during the award ceremony, posters, and the likes
4. Posthumous nominations will be considered
5. A nominee can only be nominated once in a category on a "first come first serve basis." If he or she has gotten 2 or more nominations in the same category, the first nomination received by FCAN executive board will be considered as the valid nomination, i.e., the other nominations were negated by this rule
6. A nominee can be nominated in different categories even by the same nominator by submitting a separate completed nomination form, that is the nominator is to submit one nomination form per category

Who can nominate ("The nominator")

1. FCAN members are very much encouraged to nominate their FCAN peers and colleagues
2. Nominators may make one nomination per category but different persons/nominee
3. Nominators may not nominate themselves for an award

Other Rules

1. Starting the year 2022, the recognition awards are intended to occur once every two years for which a minimum 5 and maximum 10 individuals will be honored.
2. It is not necessary that there will be a winner in each category. That is, if no nomination received during the nomination submission period or if in the opinion of the judges, the nominee/nomination did not satisfy the defined

category description

3. All nominations are screened to ensure eligibility by FCAN executive board (please refer to the Functions of the Executive Board)
4. During the recognition award year, only nominations received between September 15 and November 15 will be considered for that year's award
5. During the recognition award year, the evaluation/judging of the nominations shall be made in a day between November 16 and November 23. The announcement of the winners shall be made immediately right after the judging but only to the winners and the corresponding nominators. The announcement to the general membership will be made at the gala.
6. The recognition award ceremony is held as a special part of the FCAN Christmas Gala. The awardees (maximum of 10 individuals), their significant others (one person per awardee) and their nominators will be provided complimentary tickets
7. In appreciation of their works, the judges will also be provided with one complimentary ticket

C. Nomination Category, Definition/Description

H. Judges' Scoring Tool

All nominations received will be screened, printed/reproduced, sorted, and compiled in a binder by the assigned members of the FCAN executive board and for distribution to each judge a day or two in advance of the award selection meeting date. The binder will also include a print-out of the partially completed excel document called the "Individual Judge's Scorecard," marked "Sheet A." A demonstration and training on the use of the scoring tools will be done prior to the actual date of the judges' award selection meeting. All records of the actual judge's scoring, summary and tally will be kept confidential by the FCAN executive board.

The following scoring tools are "picture-copy" samples only of the two of the eight FCAN Maharlika Award categories. Each category scoring tool is composed of three (3) sheets, properly marked as Sheet A, Sheet B and Sheet C. The actual and the complete scoring tools to be used upon judging are in "Excel" spreadsheet document forms. The latter will be available to the judges come the date of the award selection meeting(s).

"Scoring Sheet A:"

- The scoring sheet A is the individual judge's score card for the nominated person in a category
- For each judging criteria the judge, in his/her best and unbiased judgement, will score between 0 to 3, 0 being the lowest and 3 is the highest. The judge's score is placed in the column marked "Judge's Score (a)"

0	=	Poor - The nomination has no relevance to the judging criteria
1	=	Good – Somewhat meet the judging criteria
2	=	Better – Meet the judging criteria, and
3	=	Best – Excellent or exceeding the judging criteria

- The judge's score will then be multiplied to the weight of the judging criteria, marked "Criteria Weight (b)." The multiplication product is put/populated in the column marked "Actual Score (d=a x b)
- The sum of all the "Actual Score" column is the total score made by the judge for the nominated person in each award category which will then be recorded in Scoring Sheet B besides the judge's name

M. FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQs) -This section of the guideline will continue to evolve as questions arise

- 1. I would like to nominate someone who is a member of FCAN, how do I go about nominating him/her? (Papano ba mag-nominate ng isang member o ka-pamilya ng member?)

Answer: To nominate, please follow these few steps:

- Get a copy of the FCAN Maharlika award nomination form
 - Select one category that you would like to nominate the person. For example, the category of “Volunteer Award-Community”
 - Read the definition of the category and its judging criteria. For example, the “Volunteer Award-Community” definition and judging criteria are on page 7 of the FCAN Maharlika Award Guideline. The guideline is available at the FCAN Facebook page. Or to get a copy of the page 7 (category – “Volunteer Award-Community”), please call any of the member of the FCAN executive board. The other categories are listed from pages 6 to 13 of the guideline
 - The nominator in coordination with the person being nominated, shall complete the nomination form, and submit accordingly
 - For more information, please contact any member of the FCAN executive board
- 2. What makes a winning nomination? (Ano ba ang magaling na paraan sa magandang tyansang manalo ang nomination ko?)

Answer: Write what great things your FCAN colleagues, friends and/or family member are doing

- Be specific in how the nominee met the award criteria
- Give specific examples that explain why he/she deserves to be recognized
- Review and ask for clarification about nomination criteria from any of the FCAN executive board and/or coaches.

3. What would the nominee get if he/she becomes an awardee of the FCAN Maharlika Award? (Ano ba ang mapapanalunan sa FCAN Maharlika Award?)

Answer: The awardees of the FCAN Maharlika Award will be recognized and celebrated as follows:

- a. Will be accorded with the FCAN Maharlika Award plaque of excellence during the FCAN Christmas Gala
- b. The awardee and his/her spouse (or a significant other, or single plus one) will be given complimentary tickets for the gala

Note: If a certain individual has gotten two or more awards, the number of complimentary gala tickets will be capped at maximum of 4 tickets.

The latter already include the 2 tickets for the awardee and his/her spouse or significant other, meaning just 2 more extra tickets will be given.

- c. All the awardees will be prominently featured in the December issue of the FCAN Newsletter

4. How about the nominator, what is the incentive to nominate? (E papano naman yung nag-nominate, ano naman ang makukuha kapag nanalo yung i-ninominate niya?)

Answer: Nominating an FCAN colleague, friend or family provides an effective way of engaging people and best suit for a continuing communication amongst FCAN community.

If the nominee wins an award, the nominator will be:

- a. Given a complimentary ticket (1 ticket) for the FCAN Christmas Gala

Note: If a certain individual had nominated two or more winning nominees/awardees, the number of complimentary gala tickets will be capped at maximum of 2 tickets

- b. His/her name will be recognized as the nominator of the winning award during the gala as well as in the December issue of the FCAN Newsletter.

5. When will the announcement of the winners be made? (Kailan ba ipapaalam sa publiko ang mga nanalo?)

Answer: The actual and formal announcement of the winners will be done during the FCAN Christmas Gala. However, the winning nominees/awardees will be notified in confidence (confidential) and in advance of the gala date.

6. Will all the names of the nominees and corresponding nominators be published? (Yung bang lahat na na-nominate at yung mga kinauukulang nominator ay ipapahayag?)

Answer: Upon the consent of all the concerned persons, the names of the nominees and nominators will be published and included in the December issue of the FCAN Newsletter.

7. Can an eligible individual be nominated several times for the same category by different nominators? (Ang isang taong miembro o kapamilya ay puwede bang ma-nominate sa parehong kategoria ng mga iba-ibang nominators?)

Answer: For purposes of the FCAN Maharlika Award and as indicated in the Rules and Eligibility, a nominee can only be nominated once in a category on a “first come first serve basis.” If he or she has gotten 2 or more nominations in the same category, the first nomination received by FCAN executive board will be considered as the valid nomination, i.e., the other nominations were negated by this rule.

The nominee in this case, by way of his/her consent, has the knowledge of the nomination and the category he/she’s being nominated with. To avoid multiple nominations in the same category, it is requested that the nominee inform the subsequent nominators of such.

The “subsequent nominators” can, however, support the nomination by providing the first nominator of a testimonial instead. A testimonial is aimed at strengthening the chances of winning but is not considered as an official submitted nomination for purposes of the FCAN Maharlika Award.

Usually, the nominator will ask around the community for someone to provide a written testimonial for his/her nominee, as such the written testimonial will form part of the submitted nomination. Below is the example on how to provide a testimonial:

Greetings! It's with great pleasure that I write to you today to support the nomination of [nominee's name] for the FCAN Maharlika Award in the category of [indicate the category name]. I believe that [nominee's name] is the best choice for [indicate the award category] because [reason for nomination].

I work with [nominee's name] in the [department or organization] and strongly believe they're a prime candidate for [award] because [reason for nomination].

8. Can an eligible individual be nominated for two or more categories of the FCAN Maharlika Award (Ang isang taong miembro o kapamilya ay puwede bang ma-nominate sa iba pang mga kategoria ng FCAN Maharlika Award?)

Answer: Yes, an individual can be nominated for two or more categories in the FCAN Maharlika Award, however, the rules for multiple nominations in the same category apply (please refer to the # 7 FAQ above).

9. Is there any “limitation period” for the FCAN Maharlika Award categories? (Meron bang limitasyon sa taon o panahon ang mga kategoria ng FCAN Maharlika Award?)

Answer: Of the 8 categories in the FCAN Maharlika Award, 3 categories have a limitation period of “in the last two years.” They are the “Academic Excellence in Secondary Level,” the “Academic Excellence in Under-Graduate or Post Graduate Studies,” and the “Excellence in Sports.” All the other 5 categories have no limitation period.

10. How are the judges in the judging committee formed and selected? (Papano binubuo at pinipili ang mga judges for the FCAN Maharlika Award?)

Answer: As a general practice in most organizations that render recognition awards, the ideal number of judges in the judging committee seems to be five (5) because it is a good number base that will normalize and provide fairness on scoring the winning award. As such, FCAN is adopting the 5-judge judging committee for the purposes of the FCAN Maharlika Award. One of the five judges will serve as the chair or the lead judge.

The 5 judges will be selected internally within the association as they would have familiarity of the FCAN's culture and values. The FCAN executive board will endeavor to select judges of diverse representation either geographically or demographically. The selected judges will be expected to exercise objectivity/impartiality, show good leadership and communication skills, and have a positive attitude in promoting the FCAN Maharlika Award.

In order that the selected judges become fully aware of the award nomination process, the judging criteria as well as the scoring tools, the FCAN executive board will hold an orientation meeting to review the award processes and answer questions.

11. Why should an FCAN member or family member receive an FCAN Maharlika Award? (Bakit karapat-dapat na ang miembro ng FCAN or kapamilya ay marapatan ng FCAN Maharlika Award)?

Answer: An awards ceremony makes people feel that their personal or professional achievements are valued. It shows approval and gratitude for each person's good job, and it makes people aware that good work will be rewarded. It shows others, such as the public and other members and family, that FCAN is aware of the person's outstanding accomplishments.
